

I am surprised, shocked and frustrated that Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to make their stations air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

The airways are owned by the public and those Broadcasting Corporations licensed to use our airways must, at a minimum, permit the airing of political positions from both sides. Not to permit a pro-Kerry documentary in response is bad for our democracy.

We need to enforce fairness in broadcasting, and that is where you come in.